

BECOME A MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AIDER

ABOUT THIS TRAINING

Our two-day Mental Health First Aid course takes a unique practical approach to creating competent and confident workplace Mental Health First Aiders who are able to spot the signs and respond to the mental and physical health needs of a person experiencing a mental health issue.

Delegates will be awarded the FutureQuals Level 3 Award in Mental Health: Workplace First Aider qualification, which will equip them with the knowledge to identify those who require mental health support and the confidence to offer assistance when required.

*The ICP are funding the training of the 2-day Mental Health First Aid training course, a qualification worth £300 + vat per person. If delegates fail to attend their training course the full course fee may apply, an invoice for payment may be sent to your organisation. If delegates need to transfer their course, a transfer fee may apply based on the fee of £300 + vat per course. However, if another colleague is able to attend in their place, we can change the name of the delegate, at any time, free of charge. If we can be advised of any delegate name changes in advance of the course start date where-ever possible, however, if this isn't possible, please advise the trainer on the day of the course and ensure the delegate has all the relevant ID requirements.
